City and Country: Liberia, Monrovia

MONROVIA, The United States Government, through its Embassy in Monrovia, has broken ground for a new state-of-the-art Embassy Complex at Greystone Compound. The ground-breaking ceremony, which was held over the weekend in Monrovia, brought together an array of dignitaries from both the private and public sectors of the Liberian society. The new Embassy complex, which is being constructed at the Greystone Compound in Mamba Point, is estimated to cost over US$130 million.
